

As part of Nurture Week our pupils discussed the six principles of nurture.

The children wrote the principles of nurture in their own words.

Our teachers always listen to what we have to say.

We can communicate in different ways.

We feel safe in school.

We work together and help each other.

We all learn in different ways.

We talk about changes that are going to happen.