

Option Subject - History Curriculum Map

Autumn Term 1 September – October GCSE History Paper 2 Section B (BB) – BC Conflict and tension between East and West, 1945–1972	Autumn Term 2 October – December GCSE History Paper 2 Section B (BB) - BB Medieval England - the reign of Edward I, 1272–1307	Spring Term 3 January – February GCSE History Paper 2 Section A (AA) – AA Health and the people: c1000 to the present day	Spring Term 4 February – March GCSE History Paper 2 Section A (AA) – AA (Continued)	Summer Term 5/6 April – June Revision
This wider world depth study enables students to understand the complex and diverse interests of different states and individuals and the ideologies they represented. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The origins of the Cold War. • The development of the Cold War • Transformation of the Cold War 	This option allows students to study in depth Medieval England and the reign of Edward I. The depth study will focus on the major events of the reign of Edward considered from economic, religious, political, social and cultural standpoint, and arising contemporary and historical controversies. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Government, the rights of King and people. • Life in Medieval England. • Edward I’s military campaigns in Wales and Scotland. 	This thematic study will enable students to gain an understanding of how medicine and public health developed in Britain over a long period of time. It considers the causes, scale, nature and consequences of short and long term developments, their impact on British society and how they were related to the key features and characteristics of the periods during which they took place. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Medicine stands still • The beginnings of change • A revolution in medicine • Modern medicine
Assessment Objectives	AO1: demonstrate knowledge and understanding of the key features and characteristics of the period studied. AO2: explain and analyse historical events and periods studied using second-order historical concepts. AO3: analyse, evaluate and use sources (contemporary to the period) to make substantiated judgements, in the context of historical events studied. AO4: analyse, evaluate and make substantiated judgements about interpretations (including how and why interpretations may differ) in the context of historical events studied.			